THE WOMEN'S CHOICE

Several days ago the Women's democratic club of the Second ward of Chicago, Ill., advertised in the newspapers for an alderman's candidate. It was announced in the advertisement that to receive the endorsement of the club the applicant would have to be:

A clean, respectable citizen.
A possessor of horse sense, not necessarily a college graduate.
A friend of woman suffrage.
An advocate of subways.
A voter for bathing beaches and playgrounds.
A leader, not a follower.
A man or constructive ability.
Six replies were received.

The applicant was a machinist, a broker, a clergyman, a manufacturer, a physician and a saloonkeeper.

The announcement of the lucky candidate awarded the support of the club through the unique competition was made Monday night at a meeting on that date. The saloon keeper won. He is Al Russell, proprietor of a saloon at 3459 South State street, and he met all the requirements.

And still there are people who insist that women purify politics. A saloon keeper, a clean, respectable citizen, a friend of woman suffrage and a possessor of horse sense, that more than the women had.

TEMPETHIRD RURAL ROUTE OUT OF TEMPE IS PROPOSED

Farmers North of Here Petition For Rural Route Service in Their Country

The establishment of a third rural route out of Tempe that will serve the country on the North of Salt River between the boundaries of the Indian reservation on the east, Scottsdale on the north, and the Crosscut canal on the west, has been a matter of no little agitation among the residents of that district during the last month or so. Already a petition has been circulated, the signatures of nearly every party in the district obtained, and the petition turned over to Postmaster J. W. Woolf, of the local office to be forwarded to the proper authorities at Washington, D. C. Mr. Woolf himself attached a lengthy article to the petition and explained in detail the feasibility of establishing the proposed route.

That the country between here and Scottsdale is attached to Tempe is logically true and a vast amount of the trade from the residents of that country comes to Tempe every day. Furthermore, practically all who are not served on the star routes out of Scottsdale, secure their mail at the local office.

The parties who have given their personal attention to pushing the preliminaries for the new route, though still lacking quite the required number of signatures on their petition, believe that there would be adequate patronage to make the route a success were it established. Many thousands of acres new land have been opened, and many families have come in to settle. These together with other residents who are securing rather irregular service from other sources now, readily justify the request for the establishment of a better and more reliable postal service in their district in the future.

SPANISH ENTERTAINMENT

A novel entertainment is that which the Spanish classes of the Tempe normal have arranged to give in the auditorium this evening. The full program will be presented in the Spanish dialect and under strictly Spanish stage settings. The varied program consisting of songs, recitations, tableaux, and a play will be an interesting one even though there may be few in the audience to interpret its meaning. The classes, under the direction of Miss Edith Salmans, the language instructor of the normal, are giving the entertainment with the sole intent of showing the accomplishments of the course in Spanish, and in order to cover expenses are levying a ten cent admission charge. The program will be given in the normal auditorium starting promptly at 8 o'clock, as follows:

Song, "La Golondrina," Spanish classes.
Dialogue, "Writing a Love Letter," Miss Knight and Mr. Hilbers.
Song, "Terjura," Spanish classes.
Tableaux, "Spanish Senorita," Spanish recitation, John Schoshun.
Tableaux, "Spanish Type."
Song, "Las Manitas," Spanish classes.
Play, "Los Pantalones," with the following cast:
Bona Carmen, Juan's wife Miss Chappella.
Dona Paula, Carmen's mother, Miss Westfall.
Luisa, Carmen's sister, Miss Vestry.
"Pepa," the maid, Miss Snowgrass.
Juan, the henpecked husband, Mr. Erdonten.
Felippe, Luisa's lover, Mr. Goulette.

MORE WET WEATHER

Rain started its downpour again yesterday forenoon and kept up a steady drizzle all through the day. The sewer gang was suspended and the trenching machine was left where it stood on Eighth street to await dryer weather. The pipe layers were likewise taken off, which means that travel on West of Mill avenue will be definitely out of the question. The street grading crew also has its grievances, for a thorough dragging of the regularly used thoroughfares in town was just completed Wednesday evening. But, with all that, only a spirit of optimism exists, and though it makes things temporarily disagreeable everybody is glad to see the rain which means an addition to the big bank of water in the reservoir.

NEW BAKERY FOR TEMPE
Work is now in progress remodeling on and building of the Knight store on East Eighth street preliminary to the opening of a new bakery there. W. A. Stark, for a number of years manager of a shop in Ray, is the new proprietor and as proof of his belief in the future of Tempe he has taken a four year lease on both the store building and the nearby residence. The bakery shop is being generally remodeled and a new up to date bake even installed.

MYSTERY PICTURES
Another installment of the Million Dollar Mystery pictures is on schedule for tonight's picture show at the opera house. Altogether there are six reels with a number of the favorites of the movies as the star actors and actresses.

PARLIAMENTARY STUDY
The Athenian Debating club of the normal put in a couple of hours Wednesday evening at some hard study of parliamentary ruling. The study was directly in line with the general trend of their activities in the club and much of good was derived from the couple of hours time spent. Plans were also furthered for the International Peace debate which the club is promoting for the night of the 19th of this month. Various committees are at work and one of the biggest events in the history of the club is anticipated. The debate will be staged before the public in the auditorium.

MESAOUTLOOK FOR COTTON IS VERY OPTIMISTIC

Acres in Egypt to be One-Third of Average—Local Growers Learning How to Produce

In the opinion of the local growers of cotton the outlook for the coming year is very optimistic. A letter has been received by W. S. Dorman, president of the local exchange from the American thread company bearing the intelligence that the acreage to be planted to cotton this year will be but one-third the normal. This will mean that the real competitor of the Salt River valley long staple cotton will be practically eliminated. Not only will the production be greatly decreased by the demand will be much more since the prevailing styles for women dresses will demand a great deal more yardage. However, there is another reason which has led the local growers to look for a prosperous year aside from the assuredly better prices and that is that a better grade of cotton will be produced locally. The experience gained in the past three seasons has been very valuable. There was a marked increase last year over that of the year before and doubtless the same conditions will prevail this season. It has been pointed out that when the cantaloupe industry was first started throughout this section that one hundred crates per acre was considered a splendid crop but that now four hundred crates per acre was a possibility. In other words it is held that the growers are learning now to produce more bales per acre and a better grade of cotton at that.

It is believed that the acreage this year in the Mesa section will not be so large as that of last, but that the price will be more inviting and that this is the year in which to grow cotton. The government is advising growers to plant their seed not later than March to thus insuring an early crop, and also an opportunity of getting their crop out of the way in ample time next fall to prepare the ground for a spring crop of grain in instances where the crops are rotated.

LIBRARY DINNER
The ladies of the Mesa Library Association met yesterday and perfected plans for the dinner to be given Saturday in the Knights of Pythias hall. The library and free reading room is a worthy institution and the dinner is deserving of patronage, not only because the cause for which the money will be spent but because it is going to be a mighty good chicken dinner and well worth the price to be charged for it.
